Patsey McDermott, despite the assertions of his friends that he would never ride at the hilltop track again, was in the saddle at Guttenburg yesterday. He landed Young Lottery a handy winner in the fifth race.

Jockey H. Hunter was suspended intelligent to get away from the post with agracuse.

The last race at Guttenburg yesterday was a queer one. Annapolis and Blitsen went off at a terrific pace, covering the first half in 49.3-4. When this point was reached the others were badly strang out, Lester being last. Blitzen then shook off Annapolis and cantered in an easy winner. Blitzen has not been out for some time and will be a hard horse to beat after his long rest.

Detroit showed considerable speed in the fourth race yesterday, and, had he won. Tom Eagan would have cashed in many thousand dollars winner. He had any number of tickets at 50 to 1.

Jockey Carr rode a horse at East St.
Louis one day last week and won with him. He was found to be twelve pounds short of weight, and was ruled off, while the horse was disqualified. The ruling was rather harsh, inasmuch as the shortage in weight was caused by Carr's veiet giving him a wrong saddle.

nbsolute divorce. She is a tail, handsome woman, well known in society, and was married in London in 1889, where her husband was in business as a broker and is said to be very wealthy.

The case was heard by ex-Judge Howland as referee, who took the testimony, and his report is now before the Court. One of the witnesses for Mrs. Neame was Frank Eilison, a well-known clubman of this city, and it is rumored that he is to marry Mrs. Neame as soon as sae can get her divorce.

Report has it that his attentions to Mrs. Neame as soon as sae can get her divorce.

Report has it that his attentions to Mrs. Neame are very distasteful to the lady's father, who forbade him the house and complained to supt. Byrnes about his visits, it is also said that the husband is very much incensed against Eilison, and that matters have even gone so far as to suggest the possibility of a duel either between Mr. Eilison and Mr. Henriques.

Soon after Mr. Henriques's visit to Police

Misa Maud M. Hailiday has a suit pending in the Superior Court to recover $50,000 damages from Charles Schild-re, ir. for alleged breach of promise of marriage.

Her story is that she became acquaint-sed with him several years ago, and in August, 1891, he promised to marry her. She says that on Nov. 28, 1891, she took a glass of sherry wine at his request and soon afterwards became stupefied and unconscious, and that, while in that condition, he assaulted her.

When she discovered the condition she was in Argust 1890.
